Summer retail roundup: From luxury indulgences to recycled goods, O.C. saw small business boom

It was a busy summer for retail in Orange County. Everything from a luxury watchmaker to workout studios, thrift stores and salons made for a robust season of new shops.

We've compiled a list of the stores that opened between June and August. For more details, see our slideshow.

Active Ride Shop: The pop-up shop at University Center opened June 5. The shop is in a recycled shipping container and painted with a custom mural by street artist "Shark Toof."

The shop is at 4100 Campus Drive in Irvine, between Blaze Pizza and Chipotle.

Images Luxury Nail Lounge: The ultra luxury nail salon, which already had locations in Newport Beach and Irvine, opened an additional location in Irvine on June 17. The salon offers nail services that cost as much as $25,000.

OC Goodwill Boutique: The former Classic Closet was expanded by 2,400 square feet into an OC Goodwill Boutique in Huntington Beach. The store had its grand opening June 19.

It is located at 18631 Beach Blvd.

Tadashi Shoji: The South Coast Plaza store opened its re-designed location on June 20. Japanese designer Tadashi Shoji makes women's dresses and accessories.

Braintastics: The Mission Viejo store, which aims to bring science and technology exposure to kids in a fun way as part of the national S.T.E.A.M. (Science, Technology, Education, Arts and Math) movement, opened in June.

It is located at 27741 Crown Valley Pkwy.

Roche Bobois: Roche Bobois moved its Costa Mesa showroom to the South Coast Collection in July. The 8,200 square foot French Furniture store offers in store consultations.

The new store front is located at 3309 Hyland Ave.

Club Pilates: The large Pilates franchise opened a Villa Park location on July 18.

The studio is located at 17767 Santiago Blvd in the Villa Park Town Center.

Naim Amor Salon & Spa: The spa opened in The District in Tustin on July 21. It offers hair, nails, waxing, facials and spa services.

Naim is located at 2837 Park Ave.

OC Recycled Furniture: The company, which buys used furniture, professionally cleans it and then sells it, moved its shop to Santa Ana in August.

The store is located at 2110 South Yale St. in Santa Ana.

A. Lange & Söhne: The luxury watchmaker opened at South Coast Plaza on Aug. 2. It is the company's fourth U.S. boutique. A. Lange & Söhne watches are also sold at select retailers in the U.S.

The 925 square foot store is near Saks Fifth Avenue.

Bella del Mar: Boutique store Bella del Mar opened in Corona del Mar August 7. The 1,500-square-foot store is not part of a chain. The clothes appeal to a beach/California casual vibe. Shirts range from $30 to $100, and jeans are $100 and up.

The store is located at 2828 E. Coast Highway in Corona del Mar and replaced Sunny's Photos.

Celine: Luxury designer Celine opened a store in South Coast Plaza on August 15.

The South Coast Plaza store is located next to Dior near Nordstrom.

Dover Saddlery: Equestrian shop Dover Saddlery opened in Laguna Hills on August 16.

The store is located at 23052 Lake Forest Drive.

Goodwill: The Goodwill on Adams St. in Huntington Beach reopened Aug. 24 after remodeling its 10,500 square foot store.

It is located at 9079 Adams St.

Polished Perfect: The salon opened its first location Aug. 12 in Costa Mesa.

The store is located at 801 Baker St.
